Dear Spike

Thanks for your invitation. There are two problems.

First, I can't go on Friday - I have a lesson. We _____ (7) go on Saturday - OK? Let's _____ (8) to an Italian restaurant. I know you want to go to the new Steak House, but my friend said she went there, and it was the _____ (9) meal of her life! One more thing - don't forget Jane's birthday, OK? It's next week, on _____ (10) June.

See you soon.

Paula

Italian Restaurants

Here's our pick of three restaurants in town for good Italian pizza and pasta.

La Fornaria

On the High Street, La Fornaria is a small pizzeria. Their pastas are good, but we prefer the pizzas. We loved Quattro Estagione with ham, peppers, artichokes and mushrooms. Good wine list. Prices: €12 – €28 per person, without wine.

Cappricciosa

A new place (it opened last year) that is popular with younger people. Excellent pizzas – our favourite is the Margherita. Their house wine is very good, and cheap (€4 a glass). A meal is between €9 and €20 per person, wine not included.

Mamma Rosa

The oldest Italian restaurant in town! Traditional but still very popular. Great pasta, our favourite was Spaghetti a la carbonara – just like in the good old days! You pay between € 15 and € 25 per person, more if you have an entrée. Live music on Saturdays.

1. The writer thinks the pizzas at La Fornaria are better than the pasta.

- Yes                       No

2. You can't have wine at La Fornaria.

- Yes                       No

3. Young people like to go to the Cappricciosa.

- Yes                       No

4. The Cappricciosa is cheaper than La Fornaria.

- Yes                       No

5. The Mamma Rosa is older than the Cappricciosa.

- Yes                       No

6. You can listen to music at the Mamma Rosa every night.

- Yes                       No
