Dear Gerry
 What a pity you couldn't come to the concert with us last night. It was fantastic! But I'm sure you don't want to hear that – sorry! I hope you're feeling a bit better today. Anyway, the show was great. All the bands played well but REM and U2 were the best. They were fantastic. At the end they played a song together. Wow! As you can imagine it was really crowded. I thought there were too many people but then you can't expect to have such a show just for you. And, of course, all the money from the concert is going to help fight Aids in Africa. So, I think the more people, the better. Ron says he saw Elton John. I don't believe him but the newspapers say he was there. Anyway, I must go. I've got a meeting with the boss in five minutes. See, it's not all bad being ill. There are some advantages! I'll call you later.
 Love
 Kerry
